Maryland Horse Breeders Association, Maryland Racing Commission, Maryland Million Ltd., Maryland Department of Labor, Maryland Department of Agriculture and Maryland Horse Industry Board

Welcome to the 2025 Maryland Horse Farm Tour!

In collaboration with the Preakness Festival and the First Lady of Maryland, the 150th running of the Preakness will be an internationally recognized celebration drawing participants from around the world. Harnessing Maryland's ability to claim the national spotlight, the Festival's events will increase racing-related tourism while celebrating Maryland's rich horse history.

The Preakness Festival is "More Than a Race" that will transform Maryland into a hub of culture, entertainment, and community engagement and solidify Preakness' place as the premier sporting and cultural event in the state.

The Maryland Horse Breeders Association, Maryland Racing Commission, Maryland Million Ltd., The Maryland Department of Labor, Maryland Department of Agriculture and Maryland Horse Industry Board welcome you to come spend the day where Maryland-bred race horses are grown and enjoy the countryside with your family.

We are connecting you with the horses!

A Maryland-bred horse represents the heart and soul of Maryland racing. Born and raised in the state, these horses contribute to Maryland's rich racing tradition and fuel the local economy. With the dream of the Preakness—the crown jewel of Maryland racing—guiding their journey, every foal carries the hope of future glory. Visit the state's picturesque farms, where mares and their foals roam freely in lush, open fields.

Who knows? You might just meet a future Preakness champion in the making!

This horse farm tour guide includes a list of farm locations and addresses to local agro-businesses that you can include in your trip plans!

Select horse farms will be open free of charge

11:00am – 3:00pm on Sunday, May 11th

Home to eight retired racehorses, ranging in age from 4 to 28, Second Chances Horse Farm is a partnership between the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation and the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services. Our mission is to provide retired racehorses with the love and care they deserve, after age or injury kept them from being adopted or financially supported. Their aftercare includes daily grooming and management from dedicated incarcerated individuals who first learn about horsecare and then apply their knowledge to practice. The horses and horsemen equally benefit from each other here at Second Chances Horse Farm.
